

A close-up photograph of the body of a Greco electric guitar. The body is a dark, mottled brown color. The image shows the neck at the top with frets and strings. Below the neck is a humbucker pickup. In the center, there is another humbucker pickup. At the bottom, there is a chrome bridge with six saddles. To the right of the bridge, there are three gold-colored control knobs. A chrome pickguard is visible on the right side, curving around the bridge and knobs. The text "GRECO MANUAL 1979 SPECIAL" is printed in the center of the image.
